

Rhinoplasty – Christine’s Story

“After the operation my confidence soared and I wished I’d had it done earlier.”

Christine Mabey, 56 from Southampton

I always hated my nose, which was large and long with a bump in the middle. I felt my nose spoiled my looks. I once heard someone say, “She’s gorgeous, shame about the nose”.

It got so bad that when I started driving and would pull up at traffic lights, I would swing my hair down so the driver in the next car couldn’t see my profile.

I finally had my nose treated five years ago. The children had grown up and I had some spare money so thought why not?

After the operation my confidence soared and I wished I’d had it done earlier. Both my daughters went on to have nose jobs with Transform – I fully supported and backed them all the way!
